word of the Lord that came to Isaiah of Moresbeth during the reigns of Ahaz and Hezekiah. King of Judah. In the vision he saw concerning Jerusalem.
O peoples, all of you,
O earth and all who are in it,
The Sovereign Lord has said:

Micah

But the Lord said: ...You have been concerned about this vine, though you do not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight. It brought thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well. Should I not be concerned about that great city?

Let everyone
let them give up their violence,
and let them
turn from his fierce
and let them
turn from his fierce
and let them

But God said to Jonah: ...Do you right to be angry about the vine?
I do, he said. I am angry enough to die.
But the Lord said: ...You have been
great city?

You will again have compassion

on us; you will tread our sins underfoot and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the SEA.

-Micah 7:19
