FINDING OUR PURPOSE

WHAT ARE THE FIVE THINGS I VALUE MOST?

WHAT ARE MY THREE MOST IMPORTANT GOALS?

IF I RECEIVED
TEN MILLION DOLLARS, I WOULD.....

IF I LEARNED
TODAY THAT I
ONLY HAD SIX MONTHS TO LIVE
HOW WOULD I USE
MY TIME?

WHAT HAVE I ALWAYS WANTED TO DO
BUT HAVE BEEN AFRAID TO ATTEMPT?

LOOKING BACK OVER MY LIFE,
WHAT GAVE ME
THE GREATEST SENSE OF FULFILLMENT?

IF I KNOW I
COULD NOT FAIL,
WHAT GREAT THING WOULD I DO?

Regret comes in all shapes and sizes.
Some are small, like when we do a bad thing for a good reason. Some are bigger, like when you let down a friend.
Some of us escape the pain of regret by making the right choice.
Some of us have little time for regret because we're looking forward to the future.
Sometimes we have to fight to come to terms with the past, and sometimes we bury our regret by promising to change your own ways.

But, our biggest regrets are not for the things
we did - but, for the things we didn't do.
Things we didn't say that could've saved someone that we care about.

Especially when we can see the dark storm that's headed their way.
